FUSION! is specialized training for Voice and Music individuals to participate in a lesson and then participate in a Masterclass, develop their skills and share their music with other peers. Learn great Musical Theatre techniques, using your breath, building your phrases and find your CONFIDENT voice through the music, taught by an expert performer!

David Klassen - Noted for his “rich baritone” (Minneapolis Star Tribune) and described by the Winnipeg Free Press as “solid”, “resonant” and “very satisfying to listen to”, David Klassen has established himself as one of Manitoba’s busiest baritones, teaching, performing and directing. He holds a Bachelor’s Degree in vocal performance from the University of Manitoba and a Master’s degree in vocal performance from the University of Minnesota. Full Biography can be reviewed on SAC Website.

Candace Hamm - Originally from Morden, MB, Candace Hamm (B. Mus, ARCT) is a graduate of the Marcel A. Desautels Faculty of Music at the University of Manitoba in addition to holding an ARCT diploma from the Royal Conservatory of Music. Her teachers have included Dr. Darryl Friesen, Barbara Cornish, Cameron Friesen, Dr. Charles Horton and Dr. Karen Sunabacka (theory) and David Klassen (voice). Candace has also had the opportunity to perform in masterclasses and sessional instruction for clinicians such as Dr. Edmund Dawe, Dr. Dianna Anderson, and Dr. Jennifer Swanson. Candace is in demand as a collaborative pianist, and has accompanied various choirs and productions.

FUSION! provides additional opportunities to perform, through individual and group instruction. If you love being in community musicals, this is THE specialized training for you! FUSION! has been created to enhance your current music or dance studies with choreography, character development and the knowledge of stagecraft and directing!
