LOOKING FOR BOARD MEMBERS!

Looking for an opportunity to give back? We are looking for you! Join the Steinbach Arts Council Board of Directors – a governance board, who creates policy and provides direction for a strong professional staff.

Looking for individuals of all ages from the southeast region including:

- Educators, Artists, Retirees, Newcomers, etc
- Young professionals, Students

People who share our vision....

- Community mindedness
- Business sense
- A high value for the role the Arts plays in our quality of life and the community

We meet once a month where Board members enjoy a meal together at the Steinbach Cultural Arts Centre, and once a year for our Annual General Meeting and Board Retreat.

This service is a wonderful opportunity for businesses to partner with the community – we welcome employees representing the corporate sector.

Feel the rewards of being a leader in making your community vibrant and creative!
And excellent for your resume!

If you are interested, please email a letter of intention to Cynthia Rempel Patrick, Executive Director at director@steinbachartscouncil.ca.
